

Call for Proposals

This Group invites papers dealing with all aspects of Chinese religions, including:

- Research examining the body in Chinese religions
- The use of the “canon” in Chinese religions
- Deified rulers and religious ideologies in Asian polities
- Chinese religions as practiced in the diaspora

Mission

This Group is dedicated to the academic, comparative study of Chinese religions in all forms, both historical and contemporary. We make every effort to recognize Chinese voices in religious practice as well as scholarship, and apply rigorous standards of linguistic, cultural, historical, and social-scientific understanding to the study of religion in China.

Anonymity of Review Process

Proposals are anonymous to Chairs and Steering Committee Members until after final acceptance or rejection.
