

Call for Proposals

This Group welcomes proposals on the following themes:

- The mourning of the American dream — psychological and religious dimensions of the economic malaise (for a possible cosponsored session with the Religion and the Social Sciences Section)
- Where is middle-earth (Medi-terranean)? Centrality, marginality, and intercultural dynamics in psychology and religion
- Primate studies and evolutionary psychology — what has religion got to do with it?

The Group also welcomes proposals on other themes dealing with psychology, culture, and religion.

Mission

This Group is an informal association of scholars and practitioners in the fields of religion and psychology who share common interests in the relationship between religion, psychology, and contemporary cultures. Our primary purposes are to foster creative research in the fields of the Group's interest, to encourage the exchange of ideas among the membership, and to provide a forum associated within the AAR for those with shared backgrounds in the fields of psychology, religion, and cultural theology. Please visit our website at <http://pcr-aar.org/> .

Anonymity of Review Process

Proposals are anonymous to Chairs and Steering Committee Members during review, but visible to Chairs prior to final acceptance or rejection.
