

Call for Proposals

This Group invites submissions on all subjects relating to Islam in the contemporary world. We are particularly interested in papers relevant to the following topics:

- Islam and colonial/postcolonial studies — for a possible cosponsored session with the Religion, Colonialism, and Postcolonialism Group

- Islam in Chica

- Islam in the visual and performing arts

- Islam and economy — moral and/or fiscal

- Islam in practice — pilgrimage, tourism, education, devotion, etc.

- Ethnography and anthropology of Islam

- Islam and media, social media, and/or virtual networks

- Muslim youth cultures

- Islam and material culture

- Institutionalizing Islamic studies at universities and research centers

- Negotiating religious diversity and pluralism

Audience-engaging panel formats are encouraged.

Mission

The mission of this Group is to provide a venue for discussing emerging problems and developments within Muslim societies and Islamic studies during the past two centuries, particularly in the late twentieth and early twenty-first.

Anonymity of Review Process

Proposals are anonymous to Chairs and steering committee members until after final acceptance/rejection.
