AAR MEMBERSHIP IS...

Leadership

Shape your discipline and shape your field by volunteering to serve on committees, task forces, and other groups. AAR recognizes excellence throughout the field with a number of awards and honors.

Professional Development

Enrich your professional life by attending workshops specially designed to assist you at every level of your career. AAR provides the best resources for jobs within the field. Support your research by applying for an AAR research grant.

Networking

Connect with scholars in the field by attending Annual and Regional Meetings at deep member discounts. Build relationship with colleagues within your discipline by getting involved in AAR mentoring programs. Assist and educate journalists, public policy makers, and your fellow citizens by promoting the public understanding of religion.

Publications

Publications such as the Journal of the American Academy of Religion (JAAR), Religious Studies News (RSN), the AAR books series, and the monthly e-Bulletin provide academic and informational resources about your profession. AAR members receive special discounts on books by select publishers.

Sustaining and Supporting Memberships

Do you know that the American Academy of Religion has two new membership categories?
The Sustaining Membership, which is only $1,000 annually, allows you to make a huge impact and increase the power of your gifts by cutting back on thousands of dollars in postage, paper, and administrative costs, and conserve paper by cutting down on renewal mailings.

The Supporting Membership, which is $500 annually, gives you all of your member benefits, such as the Journal of the American Academy of Religion and Religious Studies News. A large portion of your membership is also tax-deductible.

If you are interested in investing in the American Academy of Religion through these special membership categories, please contact us at
